Financial windfall about to hit City of Detroit It's all about our "money blueprint"

Detroit, MI – The Millionaire Mind Intensive is finally coming to Detroit after changing over 500,000 other's money beliefs in 13 North American cities. It's Detroit's turn to create a new money blueprint.

On 10:00 AM, Thursday, September 20th the Detroit City Council will be presenting the Spirit of Detroit Award to Gary and Peg Ostby of Sterling Heights, which honors "unsung heroes" for helping to make the Metro Detroit area a better place to live. The Ostby's will be receiving the award for bringing the transformational Millionaire Mind Intensive to the City of Detroit for the first time.

Peg shares her experience: "Since attending Millionaire Mind Intensive I now am able to capitalize on my networking skills of connecting people. I am actually getting paid generously for what I love to do - bring people together. Shifting my success blueprint has elevated every area of my life. That is why Gary and I stepped up to champion bringing the program to Detroit."

Gary notes "That after an extensive automotive career my new money blueprint has created new financial investment opportunities and business ventures that were never possible before, my financial future is very bright."

More than 1,500 people will be participating in the Millionaire Mind Intensive at Cobo Hall November 2-4, 2007. At the course each person will identify their current money blueprint, eliminate any blocks to financial success, and install a new money blueprint focused on success, and form a nucleus of people to create a financial renaissance in Detroit.

"I've changed the whole way I do my business" say Lynn Drake-Batts, a Commercial Real Estate Broker With Troy, MI based GL Equis Corporation, "my business is flourishing – this year, my income is up 300% above my average annual earnings. This has all happened to me after I attended the 3-day Millionaire Mind Intensive."

This course is based on the #1 NY Times, USA Today, and Wall Street Journal Best Seller, Secrets of the Millionaire Mind: Mastering the Inner Game of Wealth by T. Harv Eker. What makes the book unique is with the book you receive two complimentary tickets worth $2,950 for the Millionaire Mind weekend seminar. Providing new money blueprints FREE for 1,500 people will provide a major boost to creating a financial renaissance for Metro Detroit.

The Ostby's are available for interviews right after the City Council presentation at 10am.
